

LEADERSHIP NEWS

A Fond Farewell

After almost nine years, our Program Director Denise Ward (class 14) is taking a new position outside of Leadership Seminole effective June 10th. Denise has been an integral part of Leadership Seminole's success during that time and will be truly missed. We wish her all the best in her next chapter!

Additional information on the transition will be provided in the coming weeks.

Lessons on Leadership

We enjoyed having Matt Bird here last week to talk with us about building relationships - personally and professionally. We are all now ready to think of 'networking' in a new way!

We are grateful to our Alumni Association volunteers who make these events possible including our committee chair, Jeremiah Fuller (class 27), and our facilitator, Andy Searles (class 24).

Women in Leadership

Pam Gould (class 31), was honored with the Spirit of Community at the Women's Inspired Leadership Awards Luncheon On May 10, 2022. Pam is the President and CEO of Sheperd's Hope in Longwood, FL and an Orange County School board member.

Dancing Queen

Congratulations to Executive Council Chair, Sarah Hohman (class 21) whose performance won the Mirror Ball at the Dance Dream & Inspire competition! This local version of ABC's "Dancing with the Stars," took place on May 7th at the Hard Rock Live Orlando. The event raises money to benefit the over 3,000 vulnerable children, teens, and youth served every day through Embrace Families.
